Temple Israel established 1914

A Blessing for Our Community

May our synagogue be a vibrant and holy place. A place where people join together to learn and to contemplate, to be kind and to be purposeful, to be silent and to be energetic, to be forgiving and to be loving, to understand commandment and obligation, to work for peace, freedom, and prosperity in a broken world, to find faith and be guided on a journey of the spirit. May our synagogue be a vibrant and holy place so that we may be strengthened by God, community, and acts of loving-kindness.

Rabbi Karyn Kedar, Amen, 132

RABBI REMARKS

by Rabbi Michael Weinstein Temple Israel Senior Rabbi

It is with bittersweet emotion that I share these words with you. Like the maror that we eat from the Passover Seder plate, the bitterness I am experiencing is strong, pungent, and a bit spicy. Over these past seven years, I have grown to love our Temple Israel Family. We laughed and cried; we celebrated and mourned.

With all of you as my teachers, I have sat at your feet as you have all been sages to my rabbinate and my life. You have taught me to embrace some of our strongest Jewish values. Emet and Emunah, Truth and Faith do not always correspond. Yet, they emphasize the importance of living a transcendent life, a life of purpose, filled with meaning, and the wrestling acceptance of a higher power.

Kavod and Derech Eretz resonate through the hallowed walls of our Temple Family. Respect and the Path of the Earth provide us with a framework to live in community. Treating the Other and one another with grace while providing dignity and acknowledging the inherent value as we are created B'tzelem Elohim, in the Image of God. In this same vein, we acknowledge the value of Shalom Bayit, maintaining harmony and respect within our congregational family.

Friends, the most coveted value I am learning, for me personally, is that of Savlanut, Patience. Sometimes, a moment requires us to take a step back, consider the situation, consider our words, act, or perhaps not act. Rash decisions and emotional unrest may often cause more challenges and frustration. I have learned that it is best to be planful and calm... patient.

The sweetness I am experiencing is like that of Torah; the rabbis teach us that Torah is as nourishing as milk and sweet as honey. On Shavuot, we indulge in milk and honey, connecting our senses to Torah's depth, wealth, and sweetness. My Temple Family, you have given me a gift, for which I am deeply grateful: a sabbatical year. For the past fifteen years, I have selflessly given myself to congregational life, often at the expense of myself, my person, and my family. Seven of those years have been spent with you at Temple Israel.

Very few people receive the blessing of a year in their early 50s to start fresh, rediscover themselves, and renew into the person they are meant to be. This is what you have given me. In the coming year, I plan to study in Israel, complete the Doctor of Ministry degree I am working on through Phillips Theological Seminary, do yoga and meditate, find my center, and rediscover Torah Lishma, learning for the sake of learning.

I am excited to be able to spend the High Holy Days as a Cruising Rabbi in the Caribbean or some far-off sea. In the coming year, I also hope to see thousands of miles of our beautiful country from the saddle of my motorcycle and maybe even learn to work on motorcycles a bit. Of course, I plan to volunteer my time and skills in a meaningful way, making a difference in my little corner of the world.

With bittersweet emotion, I will cherish the memories of the good we have accomplished together. I will continue to learn from the mistakes I have made. I will forever carry Temple Israel in my heart; I am honored to have been a piece of the 111-year story, which comprises Temple Israel's history and the narrative of Jewish life in Tulsa.

I am thankful for all that Temple Israel has given me, for all of this and more.

In gratitude,
Michael

SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE WEEKEND

Throughout the weekend of March 28–30, Temple Israel hosted Rabbi Jeff Salkin as our 2025 Scholar in Residence, with special guest Cantor Daniel Singer. Our guests drew a crowd to discuss Judaism's relationship with everything from Israel to Bob Dylan.

BOARD UPDATE

Brina Reinstein

Temple Israel Board President

As you know one of my jobs as Temple President is to write a message in the Temple Bulletin. I feel it is important for the congregation to get to know all the Temple leadership, so I have asked each member of the Executive Committee to write a Bulletin article in my place. This month's article is written by Leisa Weintraub, Secretary.

As I write this, I look forward to the Congregational Seder our Temple clergy and staff will lead. I anticipate that this event will bring together a large number of Temple members. This enriching experience will allow us to participate in the retelling of the Exodus and reflect on our congregation's current journey.

Passover symbolizes continuous transformation—moving from one place or state of being to another, a better one filled with even more promise and potential. This concept highlights the inherent nature of human existence: we are constantly evolving and transforming, whether we embrace it, recognize it, or choose it.

The Next Dor Leadership has reported an updated plan for constructing our future Temple building. Demolition of the existing structure is set to begin in late September and is expected to take eight weeks. As the old building makes way for the new, groundwork will be laid for a Temple designed to serve our community.

We look forward to witnessing this transformation and completing the new Temple by December 2026. As we embark on this journey, we envision a place where tradition meets innovation, enabling our Temple community to flourish and inspire future generations. Thank you to everyone involved in the Next Dor project and those who donated. This is an inspiring time for our Temple community!

NEXTDOR CAMPAIGN

by Jon Stolper
NextDor Chair

We're pleased to share that the Design Development (DD) phase with our architects at Finegold Alexander is now complete! We have officially entered the final phase—Construction Documents (CD)—which will carry us through the remainder of the project. Reaching this milestone is a major step forward, and you can expect to see visible progress in the coming months. Our Leadership Team continues to meet weekly—often more frequently—to oversee every detail. We are actively working with our architects and consultants on key decisions regarding furnishings, fixtures, heating systems, AV, and more. Here is the projected timeline:

- End of June 2025 – Temple will be vacated, and office operations will transition to temporary locations on the Zarrow Campus
- July through September 2025 – Bidding, contract awards, and permitting will continue.
- September 2025 – Building demolition will occur.
- September 2025 through December 2026 – The full construction phase begins.
- December 2026 – We move in to our new home!

On the fundraising front, we're making excellent progress! We've now raised over $12.3 million toward our $13 million goal. If you haven't yet made a commitment and would like to speak with someone from our team, please don't hesitate to contact Brina—we'd love to connect with you.

Thank you for your continued support, enthusiasm, and dedication as we move forward together.

Temple Israel Garage Sale Update!

Our moving timetable has been pushed back a bit, so the new date for our Temple Israel Garage Sale is Saturday, June 22, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM. We will have many items, including educational supplies, furniture, Judaica, kitchen items, and more!

We will need many volunteers to make this sale a success. If you are able to help, please contact Lesley Bumgarner via email at lesley@templetulsa.com or call the temple office to reach her.

RABBI JASPER

COMMUNITY OUTREACH+EDUCATION

It's hard to believe that three years have passed. It feels like yesterday that I was posting in the Young Jewish Professionals group, inviting everyone to my first service at Temple Israel. How does one summarize three years of meaningful conversations, learning, and growing? I would like to share a few highlights that have made this time special. If I haven't mentioned something, it is not because it wasn't important; instead, there have been too many to name.

I remember during Tashlich in my first year, we were at the Gathering Place Lodge, and I bought ice cream for everyone like I usually do. However, someone cut the line and tried to sneak past me, ordering with the group. I spoke up, mentioning that this was a group order and that he could not order with us. Sorry, Marc Bookbinder. Now I know you're a congregant!

I was surprised the first time I ever received applause after a sermon! I remember preaching about how our text could tell us how to be good slave owners while we were still in the Book of Exodus. I never thought Jews would ever applaud a sermon. Thanks!

I still think about all those cakes you lovingly baked for me for my Installation. I felt so loved in that moment, and deeply touched by the support.

I remember the first Pride parade I marched in, before I even began my service to Temple Israel! I was holding a rainbow umbrella and excitedly meeting everyone, wondering if every summer would be that hot! Then we marched in the MLK Jr. parade in January, and I wondered if Tulsa even had a winter.

Together, we had some enjoyable learning! Whether learning about allyship with Rabbi Mike Moskowitz or talking about the 50 Shades of Talmud during Yom Kippur, I always walked away learning something from each of you.

Of course, Shorashim and Midrasha have held a special place in my heart these past three years. Seeing the joy of learning that has been cultivated and the pride when the kids come up to the bima to lead a prayer on Sunday mornings has made waking up that early worth it every time.

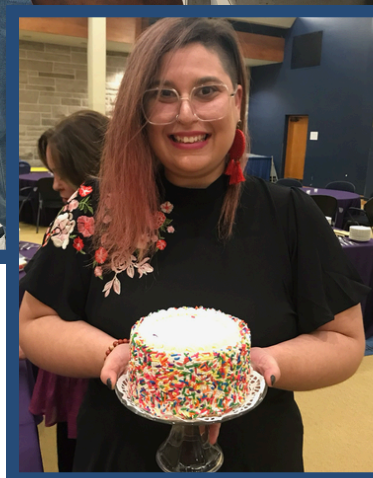

I did the math. Over the past three years, I have had over eighty cups of coffee with potential new congregants. Because of you, I have gladly adopted a new coffee addiction. However, the results speak for themselves when you see the diversity of individuals at our pre-negs on Friday nights. I feel honored that so many of you shared vulnerable moments with me and let me into your lives. Thank you.

Finally, I have had the most profound pleasure working beside incredible colleagues. Lesley, you and I would get into wonderful trouble together. You have taught me so much about being detail-oriented and seeing a project to completion. Jenny, you remind me of a Disney princess. I could listen to you sing all day. Thank you for sharing the Bima with me so often and helping with everything administrative. Jory, you taught me to be better about how a congregation spends money, and our mutual love for TV shows constantly made me eager to talk. And Kelsey, can I just say thank you? You came in and offered the school and me so much support. I truly cherish everything you have done.

Thank you for these past three years. I will truly miss you.

Lech L'Cha: Go Forth!

At Temple Israel we are currently in a time of great excitement and change as we will soon move out of our current building and begin the process of constructing our new building. In keeping with our experience in moving forward, the theme of Temple Israel's 2025 Annual Fundraiser is Lech L'Cha, which means "go forth". On Sunday, May 18th from 3:00–5:00 PM, as a culmination of this fundraising effort, we will gather at Temple.

We will enjoy a Mediterranean grazing table, hear our Tulsa Mayor's proclamation, and Zoom with our architects from Finegold Alexander. In addition, all in attendance will have the opportunity to share their favorite memories of Temple Israel and their hopes for our future. Rabbi Weinstein will lead us in a meaningful ceremony to deconsecrate our Temple Israel building and close the afternoon. All in attendance will take home a small piece of Temple Israel to treasure.

Please look for an invitation in your mailbox. We are hoping for 100% participation from our Temple Israel family. Your support is essential as we go forth.

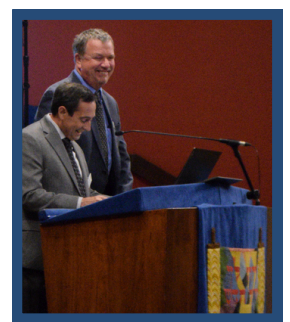

Temple Israel's 2025 Annual Fundraiser & Deconsecration Ceremony will be held on Sunday, May 18, from 3:00–5:00 PM. Please visit the website for information.

SISTERHOOD

by Donna Gantner,
Sisterhood President

At our Sisterhood Shabbat on March 14th, we displayed a WRJ Quilt, Wimple and Tallit. Many of the attendees had comments and questions about the pieces. They tell a wonderful story and are rich in history, not just of Temple Israel but of WRJ as well. I've asked Carol Stahl to write a piece, and she graciously agreed.

In early March of 2025, I received a box of "Precious Cargo" from the President of WRJ. In this box was a beautiful quilt made of 22 squares representing each of the WRJ sisterhoods in the Southwest district 22. We displayed the quilt during Sisterhood Shabbat when Donna Gantner was selected to be our 2025 Queen Esther. The material squares were sent to each Sisterhood and they were to return it so it could be put together for the final presentation. This quilt, along with a tallit and wimple and challah cover, were displayed at WRJ conventions, Installations, Sisterhood Sabbaths, Assemblies, Interim Board Meetings and other special occasions. Our square has our Temple Logo. It depicts the menorah that stands in the sanctuary, created by Donna Matlas, and uses a blue and white theme, representing the colors of Israel. These special items have travelled to many places in the past years and have had a place of honor each time.

Also in the box was the WRJ Wimple. In the early part of 2006 Maura Pollack, a congregant of Temple Israel, was asked to design and make a beautiful wimple to wrap the WRJ torah or any congregational torah in. This was made for the WRJ Biennial held in Tulsa in February 2006. It has been used in ceremonies at many different Temples and was used at the Interim Board Meeting at Green Family Camp in March 2006. It has a hand-painted design and also has embroidered squares around the outside edge.

Another treasure is the WRJ Tallit. This was made at an Interim Board Meeting by the WRJ Executive Committee in 2004. It also has been used as a chuppah that new board members stood under when they were installed.

Going to a major function like a convention or Interim Board meeting and seeing these things displayed is one of the most awe-inspiring things that I have ever experienced. I highly recommend it. I felt the love in every corner of the room.

BROTHERHOOD

by Craig Kovin,
Brotherhood President

Brotherhood is “springing” into action with several events planned in the coming months. Monday, May 12th is our next Brotherhood after Hours. It will be at Chimi’s at 15th & Peoria and will start at 6PM. This is open to all members of the congregation, not just Brotherhood, and we eat, talk and maybe even have a beer or two. RSVP to the Temple so we know how big of a space to reserve. It’s a great way to visit with your fellow congregants.

June means baseball and the annual Driller baseball outing is Saturday, June 7th. The game starts at 7:00PM at ONEOK field and there will be fireworks after the game. The Drillers will be playing the world-famous Amarillo Sod Poodles. Tickets are $20.00 each and include a $5.00 food voucher. The seats will be along the first base line which is shaded at that time of day.

The number of greeters has dwindled over the last few years and Brotherhood is looking for a few good greeters. You do not have to be a member of Brotherhood, nor do you have to be male. Any adult congregant can be a greeter. Being a greeter provides a great service to the Temple and gives you an opportunity to visit with people you may not have seen in a while. In a normal month, you will be asked one time to serve as a greeter. Please contact the Temple office if you are interested.

Making History

ARZA

by Mark Lobo,
Committee ChairRead. Listen. Join. Vote!

Last month, ARZA President Josh Weinberg delivered a thoughtful, strong message to Temple Israel via Zoom about how the Reform movement in Israel is important to all Jews. He encouraged us to seek an understanding of how the Reform and Progressive movement (IMPJ) is good for Israel and most important, good for us.

Josh's appearance at Brotherhood's last Breakfast in our current synagogue was also symbolic of the need to adapt our faith and practice to changing environments. So, let's take action:

1. Read the weekly report from ARZA. Visit www.ARZA.org/blog to find Rabbi Weinberg's insight into the Torah from a modern Israel perspective.
2. Listen to JFT Executive Director Joe Robert's podcast, For the Love of Zion, particularly his March 25th interview with Anna Kislanski, IMPJ's CEO. Find the series in the Tulsa Jewish Journal at www.jewishtulsa.org.
3. Join the movement by contributing to ARZA through Temple Israel. If you didn't include ARZA with your TI membership dues earlier this year, please consider the importance and become a TI/ARZA member.
4. Vote Reform! The election of delegates to the World Zionist Congress continues through May 4th. Add your vote for the Reform slate to increase the Reform presence in the 152-member delegation from the U.S. It's easy to register and vote at www.ARZA.org

Here's my hope to see you at the Yom Ha'atzmaut celebration at the Charles Schusterman Jewish Community Center on Sunday, May 4th. This year the program is a Yom Ha'AtzmaEAT Brunch with a huge, exciting offering of Israeli food, prepared with the culinary skills of Itzik Levin and Alin Avitan. Can't go to Israel this year? Then eat like you're there!

SOCIABLE SENIORS

On Sunday, June 1st, Sociable Seniors will gather at Philbrook Museum at 10:30 a.m. Our own Sandi Tilkin, a Philbrook docent, will guide the group on a tour of the acclaimed exhibit – 'SAMURAI: Armor from the collection of Ann and Gabriel Barbier-Mueller'. The exhibit has opened to raves, and unveils the culture, lifestyle and art of the samurai warrior in Japanese society. Following the tour, participants will move to Charleston's restaurant at 37th and Peoria, where we'll enjoy lunch together.

Please note: this particular tour and lunch are limited to the first 20 participants, so please be in touch with the Temple office (918-747-1309) (asap and no later than May 26) to make your reservations. Each attendee will be responsible for the $14 museum admission and their own meal.

Sociable Seniors sponsored a similar outing last year with a different exhibit, and it was fully attended and enjoyed by all.

Sociable Seniors is Temple's fun and activity group for members and community friends 65+. We enjoy being together, and always welcome new attendees and look forward to making new friends. We schedule activities (on no particular schedule) multiple times throughout the year, so watch your BulleTin and Temple Itinerary on line for future information.

Maddy is the daughter of Ally and Aron Katz and loving big sister to Lilah (10) and Ella (7). She is the granddaughter of Cindy and Ira Levy and Vivian and Joe Katz. Maddy is a seventh-grade student at Jenks Middle School, where she is a member of the National Junior Honor Society and student council, participates in WEB leadership, and performs in choir and school musicals. Maddy is a Cadette in Girl Scouts, plays soccer, and is an avid reader.
